KNOCK! KNOCK! KNOCK!

A black and white cartoon illustration. On the right side, a hand is shown from the wrist up, with fingers curled as if it has just thrown or knocked over a round object. The object is a simple white sphere with a few dark lines indicating motion or impact. To the left of the sphere are several large, dark, teardrop-shaped shapes, possibly representing leaves or a surface being hit. The background is a light gray with some darker gray shapes suggesting a scene. At the bottom center, there is a black rectangular box containing white text.
